football career and looks forward to bonding with his teammates. Leaving the only town he’s ever known will bring its set of challenges, but Lyons is ready for the chance to explore somewhere new.

“It’s gonna be nice to experience something different and I’m super excited about that,” said Lyons.

While his next chapter will take him beyond the borders of Henry County, Lyons knows his path will always be rooted in his hometown.

“I wouldn’t trade anything in the world for my experience that I’ve had growing up, and I would like to think that most people who are from here would say the same,” said Lyons. “I’m so happy with where I’m at and the experiences I’ve had to get here.”
